(These rides include rides that your toddler will do alone, as well as the rides that you will need to ride with them)

- Bring a stroller/jogger. The strollers for rent at lagoon vary between $10-$20 and do not provide shade or a basket for your things. (Make sure to check your strollers tires to make sure they aren't flat!)
- BRING WATER & SNACKS in a 2-3 gallon cooler. You ARE allowed to bring your own food into lagoon.
- Children 2 and under (or under 48") may enter the park and Lagoon A Beach for no charge. Lagoon offers individual ride tickets sold 2 for $1.00- but some rides take up to 8 tickets to ride once. BUY A YOUTH DAY PASS.
- Bring a lightweight backpack for your valuables (phones/wallets) and immediate necessities (sippy cup/fruit snacks) while your stroller is parked and you are waiting in line for a ride.
- Plan to take a break for 1-3 hours in the middle of your day. The stimulus of the crowds, rides, smells and food will wear your toddler out. If your toddler usually naps try to find a way for them to do that (hotel points came in handy for us when we went). On occasion there will be more shady quiet spots in Lagoon A Beach for your toddler to nap if they nap easily. If not... take them on a drive. Parking isn't too bad when you have to come back.
- Do the "baby-swap"! Have a group dedicated to spending part of the day with your toddler, and then switch at some point. Trying to stay together makes decision making harder and waiting will wear your toddler out.
- Know this list of rides!! Already knowing which rides your toddler CAN and CAN'T do makes things A LOT EASIER. You can know WHERE these rides are located by printing the PDF map off of LAGOONPARK.COM (Don't wait to get a map until you're there.)

There are rides that children can go on accompanied by an adult if over 36".

Ex: Tidal Wave, Bombora, Rattle Snake Rapids
